

Dear Legacy Leadership Forum Member:

Have you ever asked yourself:

When are you going to die? What is your net worth?
Have you envisioned what the 48 hours after your death would look like to your family?
Do you and your mate agree on your wishes for after the fact?
How are your loved ones going to be provided for in the short term in the days following your death?
Who runs the business the day after your funeral? Who signs the checks?
Who has keys to the business facility? What banks are you currently using?
Who is your accountant and lawyer?

That was just for starters, so what are the reasons you need to complete this material?

1. Having order in your life honors God.
2. Showing love to your wife by having your estate, business, and life in order.
3. Valuing your family by making a succession plan to protect them in a crisis.
4. To answer all the questions of business and estate issues that WILL be asked.
5. Protect your customers and suppliers from getting cheated.
6. To facilitate the changing of the guard in a proper and God honoring way.

As a Christian, you have the privilege and responsibility of providing for your loved ones through the making of your will and business succession plan. In an effort to help you with this process, Legacy Leadership Forums has prepared this binder which will introduce you to some of the opportunities available to help you fulfill the goals and objectives which you have set for yourself, your loved ones, and the work of the Lord. In essence, fulfilling your Legacy thru the information in YOUR "Last Chapter" provided in this binder. (This information was originally supplied in a binder, so you will see reference made to "binder" many times in this information.)

Your Will can start with this simple but powerful testimony:

"I, (name), realizing the uncertainty of this life and with full confidence and trust in my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, in His death on the cross for my sins and in His shed blood as an atonement of my soul, and knowing that by faith in His sacrifice, on the cross for me I have eternal life, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be my Last Will and Testament; and a succession plan for the Lord's Business."
