

There are several resources Legacy provides for the edification of our forum members. The intention for these tools is to assist each member and forum leader to grow in their leadership in the Kingdom of God using the platforms of business, family, and community.

1. Each Other

At Legacy we are all resources for each other. We are here to help each individual grow in their leadership through the companionship and advise, fundamental within the Legacy Leadership Forums ministry

2. The LLF Website

The website is intended to be a multi-use tool for ministry. It is an introduction to the ministry for those who don't know us, it is a communication location for events throughout the year and it is a library of documents and videos for our forum and regional leaders.

3. Right Now Media

Our Right Now Media subscription is available to all Legacy members. This website is FULL of educational and inspirational videos to assist us to hone our leadership skills and provide new ideas to serve those we lead.

4. The Last Chapter

Legacy spent a great deal of time developing and assembling our Last Chapter binder. This document is intended to bless those we love after God takes us home. Those left behind us may be handed a very complicated organization to handle and process properly. The Last Chapter provides a way to us to set up our succession plan and to help carry it out once we are gone.

5. Life Coaching

Legacy offers life coaching to all members of our ministry. Life coaching provides a relational process assisting people in designing and strategizing their preferred future.

6. Staff Resource section

The Legacy website provides archived information for all Legacy staff and contractors. The information is intended to offer support through Bible lesson documents, scheduling, instructional videos and our Operations Manual.

1. Prayer Retreats

Legacy Leadership Forums facilitates a 1-1/2-day prayer retreat each year. This fall event is intended for each leader to get away from the day-to-day busyness and to reflect on God, on our relationship with Him, and discover His desires for us. It is a wonderful time of rest and restoration.

2. Kingdom at Work Gatherings

Kingdom at Work, a ministry partner of Legacy Leadership Forums provides a one-day event called a Gathering. The Gathering is intended to bring business leaders and their teams together to unify in vision and grow both individually and corporately.

3. Kingdom at Work Workshops

A second opportunity coming out of our partnership with Kingdom at work is to attend one of their workshops in Lubbock Texas. This workshop is designed to assist leaders and their teams in developing a plan for transformation in their businesses to advance the Kingdom of God.

4. Skill Development Seminars

Legacy hosts seminars to assist our development in leadership skills. Specific speakers are invited to teach us about succession planning, business organization, workplace relationships etc.
