Confidentiality Covenant

Proverbs 25:9b-10: “Do not declare the secret to another, lest he who hears it expose your shame.”

The purpose of Legacy Leadership Forums is to help Christian business owners/executive learn how to integrate Biblical principles into their personal lives and business community. LLF is part of a process of building a Legacy in three areas: Living a Legacy personally; Living a Legacy through your business; Living a Legacy through your community. This process may also lead to evangelism, using your platform to present Jesus Christ as Savior and Lord.

LLF provides an opportunity for a Christian business leader to meet in a tight, strict, confidential setting with other men of similar business responsibilities to present ideas, concerns and problems, and receive Godly counsel. The members will meet faithfully to help each other apply Biblical principles to the everyday operation of their businesses.

In keeping with a high degree of trust, each member signing this statement agrees to maintain the utmost level of confidentiality and will not disclose personal or business-related items or issues presented and discussed during the monthly LLF meeting to anyone outside the group (including his spouse).

If any member fails to maintain this level of confidentiality by discussing or disclosing any material or conversation of any parties, this member may be brought before the group and asked to be dismissed from any further proceedings in conjunction with this LLF group.

“He who is devoid of wisdom despises his neighbor, but a man of understanding holds his peace. A talebearer reveals secrets. But he who is of a faithful spirit conceals a matter. Where there is no counsel, the people fall; but in the multitude of counselors there is safety.” (Proverbs 11:12-14)

“The hypocrite with his mouth destroys his neighbor” (Proverbs 11:9a)
